SCM logo Student Christian Movement Glasgow are holding a series of workshops, talks and panel discussions to celebrate LGBT History Month. As well as looking to our past, we'll be asking what's next for Queer people in the Church. Speakers include the renowned poet and priest Reverend Rachel Mann, biblical scholar Dr Sarah Nicholson, and equal marriage champion and Provost of St Mary's Cathedral, the Very Reverend Kelvin Holdsworth.

Diversity and inclusion are at the centre of everything SCM does, and this week is designed to explore intersections of faith, sexuality and gender.

Details of the events are as follows:

Monday 20 February 2017, 18:30 ? Queer Bible study with Dr Sarah Nicholson

Tuesday 21 February 2017, 18:30 ? ?Bisexuality and the Church? with Dan Cruickshank

Wednesday 22 February 2017, 13:00 ? ?Queer histories, Queer presents: the why and the what of LGBTQ+ history.? A conversation with historian Debbie White.

Wednesday 22 February 2017, 18:30 ? Asexuality workshop with Joanna Russell

Thursday 23 February 2017, 18:30 ? ?Trans* Christianity? with Reverend Rachel Mann

Friday 24 February 2017, 18:30 - ?Queer Church ? where next?? A Panel discussion with Dr Vicky Gunn, Iona Kimmitt and the Very Reverend Kelvin Holdsworth.

Please send any enquiries to Caitlin Wakefield (caitlin@movement.org.uk [1]).
